The Summer dance season has begun in some areas and most winter classes have stopped until the Autumn. It appears most areas are running Spring Classes of some sort but there are too many for me to list here. If you are looking for a class type dance then check your local Branch website as full details will be listed there. I have concentrated on listing dances with Live Bands especially those I traced where the organisers have not submitted details to the Society Events Page run by Mary Cant of Dundee Branch

<https://www.scotdancediary.co.uk/index.php>

Details of your dances should be sent by email to scotdancediary@gmail.com

This year I have not listed each Monday programme for the Troon Summer Dances except for the first five Mondays. As the same programmes are danced in a repeat after each five nights I have simply noted the date and band for subsequent nights with a note of the programme number being used. Just refer back to the previous nights to locate the appropriate programme.

The next TAS (Teachers' Association Scotland Workshop is on the weekend of 29th/30th August 2025 at Bridge of Allan. They are organising the traditional dance on Friday 29th with music from Michael Taylor and the Swilcan Band (programme to follow).

For a real feast you can dance on the Saturday night at the same venue to Frank Thomson (programme on Stirling Branch website).

<http://www.rscds-stirling.org/events.html> For those with a short memory, Stirling Branch now recap dances

Attendance at Dances has been very varied this Winter. Some dances could only muster 3 or 4 sets and that puts an enormous strain on Club/Branch finances. Typically this occurred when there was more than one dance happening in a small area. Dancers lose out too when there is more than one dance on the same night. Organisers I've spoken to say they have to book up Halls/Bands 2 years in advance and use this as an excuse. Surely, if local groups would speak to each other and agree an allocation of particular dates for each group this would solve the problem. I remember certain dances were always on the same night each year but now they no longer follow that rota. Please, can organisers talk to each other.

A few dances have been the exception and have had a full hall of dancers when there was no competing event on. In particular, last Monday, The Troon Summer dance season started off with 11 sets on the floor for the first dance. That's an attendance we have not seen this past year.
